Take Your Child to the Library Day — Saturday, February 2, 9 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., ages 12 & younger, Children's Department.

Parents are always encouraged to bring their children to the library, but the Vineland Public Library is asking parents to make a special effort to visit the library on the first Saturday in February in honor of Take Your Child to the Library Day. Children ages 12 & younger who visit the Vineland Public Library Children's Department will receive a free book, while supplies last. The gift books are funded by The Friends of the Vineland Public Library.

Take Your Child to the Library Day (TYCLD) is an international initiative that encourages families everywhere to take their children to their local library. Launched in 2011 in Connecticut by librarians Nadine Lipman (Waterford Public Library, retired) and Caitlin Augusta (Stratford Library) with artist Nancy Elizabeth Wallace, TYCLD raises community awareness about the importance of the library in the life of a child, and promotes library services and programs for children and families.
