

VINELAND PUBLIC LIBRARY TEEN PROGRAMS

December 2018

Teen Club Meeting & Anti-Bullying Program Wednesday, December 5, 5-6:30 p.m. Teen Room/Community Event Room

Teens ages 13-18 are invited to help us plan future programs for teens and children. Our regular meeting will be followed by a presentation of "Imagine the Possibilities...If...Bullying Stopped Today" by Mark Walters. Teens who attend can earn 1 1/2 hours of volunteer time. Parents may attend the anti-bullying program which will start at 5:30 p.m. Registration is requested.

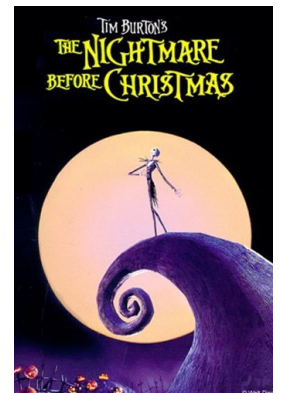

Teen Winter Party Wednesday, December 12, 5-6:30 p.m. Community Event Room

Teens ages 13-18 are invited to celebrate the beginning of winter! We'll enjoy some hot cocoa, light refreshments, and a White Elephant gift exchange. Participants must bring a wrapped gift (under $5) with them to the party. Rules of the White Elephant gift exchange will be explained that evening. Registration is requested.

Teen Movie Wednesday, December 26, 3:30-5 p.m. Community Event Room

Teens are invited to watch an animated tale about Jack Skellington's plan to kidnap Santa Claus and celebrate a very different Christmas. This rated PG movie is shown in compliance with a license from Movie Licensing USA. Registration is requested.

Please note there will be no Teen Program on December 19th.
