“Easy Spring de-Cluttering” with Bestselling Author Jamie Novak

Join Vineland Public Library for a humorous look at the common challenges to getting organized. The “Easy Spring de-Cluttering” program will take place on Monday, May 8 from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. in the Community Event Room. Aside from a laugh or two, you will walk away from “Easy Spring de-Cluttering” with tips on how to clean your closets, easily sort mail, unclutter countertops, and make those piles of paperwork disappear! This event will be hosted by organizing specialist and bestselling author Jamie Novak. Jamie has appeared on HGTV, QVC, and recently became a home blogger for Martha Stewart Whole Living. So, if you are wondering what to keep, what to toss, where to share or sell it and how to let it go, this free workshop is not to be missed! Call 856-794-4244 ext. 4243 to register. Walk-ins are also welcome!

“The Brilliant Life of a Butterfly”

Local nature photographer Phillip M. Ballou will host a slide show on a butterfly’s life on Thursday, May 11, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. in the Community Event Room. Pictorial slides will include butterflies from egg to chrysalis, nectar plants that host butterflies, and Monarch butterflies wintering in Mexico. Note cards, bookmarks and photographs will be available for purchase. All ages are welcome to this free program that is sponsored by the Friends of Vineland Public Library. Registration is appreciated. To register, stop by the Information Desk or call 856-794-4244 ext. 4243. Walk-ins are also welcome!

Beatrice's Book Review

Hello Readers!

I just received a letter from my niece, Becky. I will share with you!

Hey Aunt Bea,

It's Becky. I couldn't help but write to you about the comic Wolverine: Old Man Logan (GN Wolverine) created by Mark Millar and Steve McNiven. My friend recently lent me her copy, and I couldn't put it down until I'd finished it. The story follows a much older Logan, after many notorious villains have taken over, who is living a normal family life. Money issues lead to him travelling with an old friend to deliver a certain package. Of course, things don't go quite as smoothly as planned, introducing readers to characters and issues of a destroyed and tragic America.

Without spoiling too much, I'll try to tell you why I love this comic so much. In the comic, Logan is older and very broken by his experiences, but he carries on and looks after his loved ones. His character, though in different circumstances, actually reminds me a bit of Logan in the Logan movie, which recently came to theaters. Comic and movie are drastically different in regards to story, but I think both share bits of hope and the need for superheroes to rise and fight again in a ruined world, where the heroes had, sadly, lost. Comic and movie are also both very honest. Things don't just magically end up alright for the characters because they're the 'good-guys', and I absolutely love an honest story, even if the ending isn't a happy one. I definitely wouldn't consider the comic's end to be happy, but perhaps hopeful towards a happier future we won't get to see. So, definitely give the comic a read, and see the movie too if you can. Both are absolutely amazing stories!

*Love always,
Becky*

Happy reading and watching!
Beatrice

Cut here for a fridge calendar!
