

Vineland Public Library

Material Donation Guidelines

The Vineland Public Library appreciates your donations of usable books, magazines, CDs and DVDs.

Items are sold at the all-volunteer Friends of the Library book sales. Proceeds support library programs and essential resources not covered by the city budget. Some items may be used to replace worn or lost items in our collection.

Items that we CANNOT accept:

- Anything in poor condition (moldy, water-damaged, missing pages, torn covers/pages, smelly, etc.)
- Textbooks & encyclopedias older than 5 years
- Condensed books (Readers Digest)
- Out-dated information such as travel or tax guides or books and/or magazines on science, medicine, and computers
- Cassettes and VHS
- Any DVD or CD that has been recorded over or was home recorded
- Pamphlets, brochures, or newspapers

Items we CAN accept:

- Books that are clean, odor-free and in good condition, including:
 - Children's books
 - Novels, nonfiction books & paperbacks
 - Magazines less than 2 years old (Please remove any personal address labels.)
- Music CDs
- Books on CD
- DVDs (movies, documentaries, TV series, exercise, how-to, and instructional)
